LAKE-SIDE RACING.

O'Connell, Algareta and May Beach treated the big crowd at Lakeside yesterday to one of the most interesting and closest finishes seen around Chicago this season.

The trio met in the third event, which was at five and a half furlongs, and in a fog so dense that only the finish of the race could be seen by the spectators. They had a tremendous battle all the way.

DAILY RACING FORM had four competent men stationed at different corners of the track, and each of them reported that the trio had it hammer and tongs all the way. From the eighth post home the crowd was able to see the three sprinters fighting hard for every inch of ground,
and the contest brought forth a hearty round of applause. The trio finished on the extreme outside of the course, and only the judges could tell correctly which one of them won, but they were prompt in hanging out O'Connell's number.
The big, ancient son of Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy was an odds-on choice at 7 to 10 and consequently his victory was popular. Conley rode O'Connell and it was his smooth work at the head of the stretch that won the race. At this point Conley bumped into and carried Algareta and May Beach to the extreme outside. The interference knocked both fillies off their stride and by the time they recovered the wire was reached and O'Connell was the winner.
No foul was claimed against O'Connell and outside of a severe reprimand the judges let Conley go and the race stand as the horses finished.

Outside of the O'Connell rousing finish the other races were not sharply contested, all of the other winners having something in reserve.
Harry Nutter's sudden awakening started the several moneys going, but as he is an in and out of the worst kind no action was taken in the affair, and his quick improvement must be charged to the general uncertainties of racing.

After winning the second event, Yoloco was run up to $700 by Albert Simons. The colt was entered for $400 and his owner stood the raise.
F. Smith, trainer of the horse Astor, has been suspended on account of the inconsistent running of the horse. The judges further recommended that Smith's license be revoked.

Winner—Ch. f. by The Hero—Nora C.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden. Third, fourth and fifth driving to the limit. Nora C. ran the best race. She was slow in getting away but worked her way to the front gradually and when the stretch was reached had the race in hand. Vie Lamont had no excuse. Freeman got her away flying and the filly ran her best race. Terrene had bad racing luck throughout. This considered she did well. Robolia made up ground all the way and finished stoutly. Flirtation quit badly in the stretch. Josephine B. seems to be of no present account. She got into a bad mix-up on the far turn but she never showed speed and the race stamps her as not in good form.

Scratched—15325 Alice B., 106.
Overweights—Lady Osborne, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Take Notice—Lake County.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; the other two placed horses were driving to the limit. Yocco was well ridden and won like much the best youngster. Vititoe rated him with judgment through the first part of the route and passed Man of Honor in the stretch as though he was tired. Under light weight and over a distance of ground Yocco is a useful racing tool. Mont Eagle finished strongly and got second place in the last stride. Weight and everything considered, Man of Honor ran a good race. He looked all over the winner at the head of the stretch, but under his heavy impost hung at the end. Well handled this colt would probably prove a stake winner. Under a poor ride Indian did well. Aloha II. showed a lot of speed, but the route was too far for him. Mitchell had Tommy O'Brien in the deepest going all the way. This accounts for his poor showing.

Overweights—Orlandine, 44 pounds.
Yocco, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Mont Eagle, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Man of Honor, show, 2 to 1. Tommy O'Brien, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. g. by Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. It was a spectacular finish between the first three. O'Connell won principally because Conley tricked the other boys. At the head of the stretch he was in the inside of Algareta and May Beach. All three were close together and under pressure. Conley realizing that his horse was stopping under him resorted to questionable tactics. He took O'Connell to the extreme outside, carrying Algareta and May Beach with him. This naturally knocked them off their stride and gave O'Connell a "shade" which proved enough for him to win. Algareta was possibly the best today. She was between the other two and was badly bumped through the entire length of the stretch. May Beach was well ridden and hung on more gamely than usual. Previous to the race a tremendous fog came up making it impossible for spectators to see across the track. DAILY RACING FORM had four competent men on the turns and this form can be relied upon.

Scratched—15383 Little Jack Horner, 110.
O'Connell, place, out. Algareta, place, 6 to 5; show, out. May Beach, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—Ch. c. by Harry O'Fallon—Vena N.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive; second and third were hard at it. Harry Nutter was well ridden and improved with a start. In the face of most of his recent races this was a raw form reversal. The horse is a bad one and is liable to get any one in trouble by his inconsistent running. Ed Tipton was all tangled up at the start and had to be much used ear to get into a good position. Everything considered his race was below par. Better ridden Monongah would have been second and perhaps would have won. Patterson rode badly on him and in fact did everything inefficient but fell off. Sam Lazarus B. g. showed considerable speed but could not carry it far. Teutons, too, showed speed. He was not well ridden. Mitchell hurried him too much in the first part of the race and this made him stop at the end. Espionage seemed stiff and sore and was beaten off all the way. Judging from this race the filly is not of much present account.

Overweights—Espionage, 34 pounds.
Harry Nutter, place, 5 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Ed Tipton, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Monongah, show, evens. Espionage, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 3.

Time, 1:24, 2:51, 1:034, 1:104.
Winner—B. f. by Kingston—Seville.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden, but with something left. There was much action behind the winner. The Lady was cleverly handled and ran a capital race. Mitchell seemed to have great confidence all the way and did not lose his head when Red Cross II. showed in front on the stretch turn. He never touched the filly with the whip, but simply hand rode her to victory. Red Cross II. is seemingly not a stayer. In the final sixteenth he quit badly. Ailanto ran below his mark. He showed speed, but not his usual measure. The weight stopped Maud Wallace. Ophelia is well bred, a good looker and may win soon. Olekma and Satan both ran bad races.
Scratched—15329 O'Dea, 97; Time, 97; (15395) Florinel II., 113; 15348 Syra, 97.
Overweights—Allacochee, 24 pounds; Maud Wallace, 3; Dinornis, 3.
The Lady, place, 5 to 1; show, evens. Red Cross II., place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Ailanto, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3.

15422 SIXTH RACE—1 3-16 Miles. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g. by Alarm or Pardee—Meadow Lark.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third were under punishment. Double Dummy liked the going and weights and under a well-judged ride ran one of his best races. Mitchell rated the gelding with skill, avoided all interferences, picked the best going and came away when ready in the stretch. Tappan, as usual, was right there. On Tappan Conley rode a bad race. He made his run too soon and was in next to the rail in the deep going all the way. Moroni runs best from behind and Mason ruined all chances he had by setting the pace. Ennomia made one bid on the far turn and then died away. Wilson looked high in flesh and was not ready. This race should do him a lot of good.
Scratched—15399 Jackanapee, 99; 15398 Admetus, 99.
Overweights—Tappan, 34 pounds.
Double Dummy, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Tappan, place, 1 to 3. Moroni, place, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Siddartha—Rose Higby.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Knight was overconfident on J. J. T. His mount should have won. Pat Cleburne was cut off directly after the start and in a pocket down the backstretch. Parakeet saved ground all the way and was hard ridden. Red Snapper and Glad Hand tired after going three quarters.
